Saturday, September 20, 2025

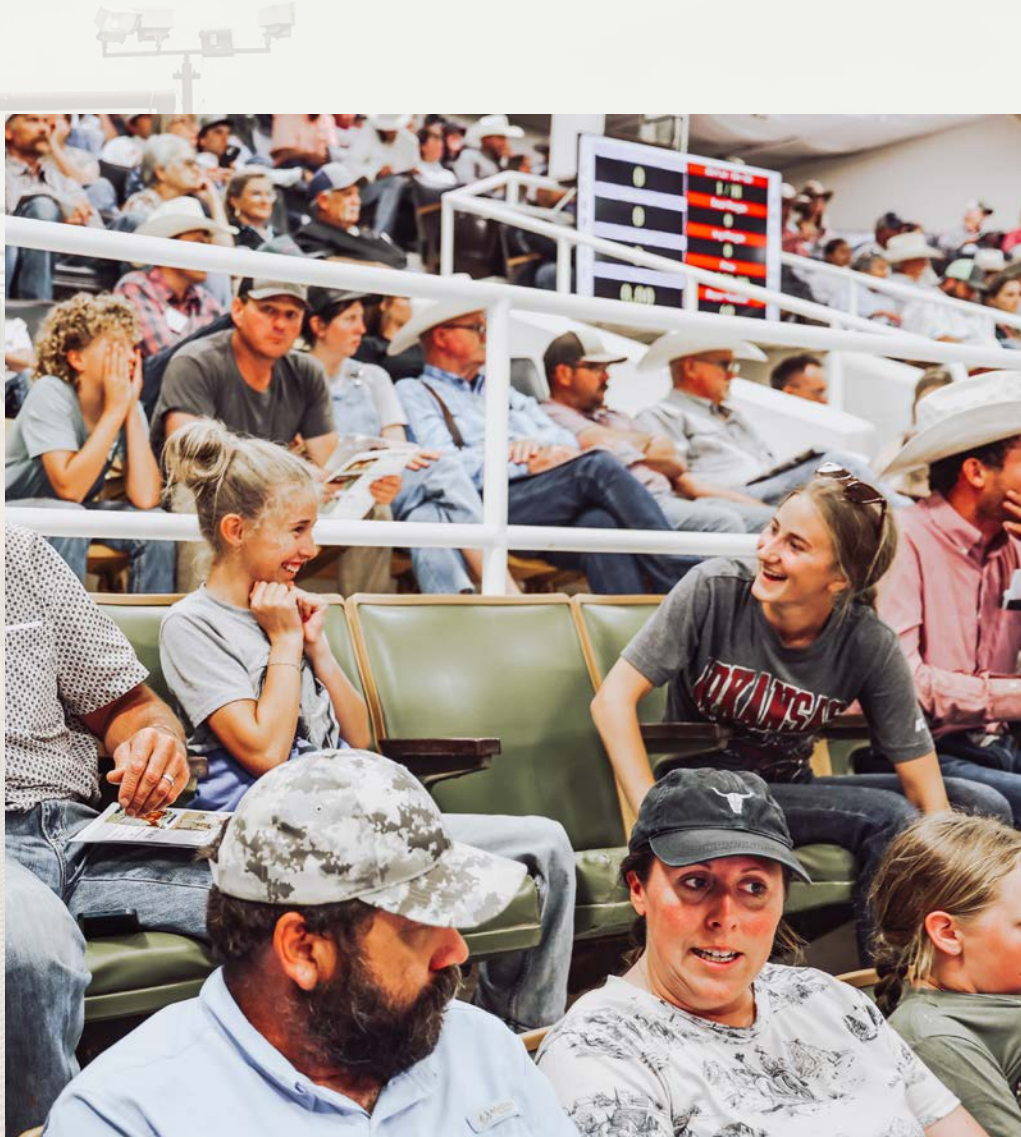

Woodward, Oklahoma

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Woodward Horse Sale acts as an agent only and is not responsible for buyer/seller misunderstanding. ALL RESPONSIBILITY AND GUARANTEES ARE STRICTLY BETWEEN THE BUYER AND SELLER.
2. All buyers must register with the office prior to bidding in the sale. Upon completion of registration, buyers will be issued their respective number for purchases to be billed to. Bids will NOT be accepted from buyers without an authorized buyer number. NO EXCEPTIONS.
3. To bid online, buyers must apply for approval ahead of time and will not be permitted to bid online unless the appropriate financial information is obtained before sale day. NO EXCEPTIONS.
4. Horses bought online must be paid for by cash or credit card, due at the time of purchase, and be loaded out within 24-hours of the conclusion of the sale.
5. Those buying online MUST contact the office or Luke Hale within 15-minutes of the gavel falling to arrange for payment and transportation, otherwise the horse will be resold in their name and responsible for any difference owed including all relevant sales charges.
6. Terms of the sale are cash and payment in full which must be made to the office immediately after the sale. No horses will be released until this condition is met and a load-out is issued by the office. This includes No Sales/Pass Outs.
7. Upon receipt of payment, the office will issue an order to load-out, as well as any corresponding registration papers. Buyers assume all expenses and risks once the horse has left the auction ring. Buyers also are solely responsible for transfer of registration.
8. Woodward Horse Sale and its management assume no liability on its part or on the part of the seller as to any errors or omissions regarding horses sold.
9. ALL consignments MUST go through the sale ring. ALLEY TRADING IS STRICTLY PROHIBITED.
10. All known defects will be announced before each horse is started. Every horse will be sold under this rule. No horse can be rejected by buyer once struck off by the auctioneer. The seller guarantees all mares to be bred as indicated in the catalog or announced in the ring. They will be sold as is and without return privileges unless otherwise stated.

11. Consignors have the privilege to No Sale/Pass Out horses when struck off by the auctioneer. ALL No Sales/Pass Outs MUST BE DECLARED IN THE RING. Once the horse has exited the ring, it is considered sold unless this condition is met.
12. Only authorized riders and registered buyers are permitted to enter the pens and areas within the fenced perimeter. All others are prohibited from entering pens, unload, or load-out areas within the fenced perimeter.
13. Woodward Horse Sale, Woodward Livestock Auction, and its management will not be responsible for ANY accidents on the premises.

ATTENDANCE OR PARTICIPATION IN THE WOODWARD HORSE SALE, WHETHER AS A BUYER, CONSIGNOR, OR OTHERWISE, SHALL CONSTITUTE ACCEPTANCE OF AND AGREEMENT TO BE BOUND BY THE FOREGOING RULES.

Banjo rides one handed and on a loose rein. He trail rides and will safely get you through deep water, over downfall, up and down the hills. Traffic, wildlife, dogs and kids running all around don't bother him a bit. Use him for gathering, dragging at branding time, sorting and roping one in the pasture. Banjo has seen miles in the feed lots as well. He's honest and safe down the trails. In the arena, he is soft in the bridle, moves off leg pressure, picks up both leads and has the cutest jog you can ride all day.

Hoss is a grade gelding that checks all the boxes for someone looking for a versatile, reliable partner. He's been used as a ranch horse, on the heading side, and even as a pick-up horse. Broke, gentle, and handy with a nice handle, he's got a big motor and is the kind you can put to work without hesitation.

- Rides bareback or saddled with no fuss
- Big, stout, and sound – stands around 15.1 hands
- Gentle on the ground, easy to catch, and does well in the pen with others
- Respects any fence, including hot wire
- Rides off quiet even after time off

While he's a little out of shape right now, saddle him up and leg him back into condition – he's the kind that will ride off steady and dependable.

Gentle enough for kids, youth, or even grandma, yet gritty enough to handle a full day's work, he's the kind you can saddle up and trust in any setting. He has extensive roping experience—both heading and heeling—and ties down solid every time. With his size, bone, and athletic ability, Freckles has the potential to make a top-end head horse, but he's also happy to just hit the trails for an easy ride. He loads, hauls, shoes, and handles like a dream. Sound, sane, gentle, and proven outside.

SEX: Stud Colt

FOALED: 2025

COLOR: Bay

Queso is a 2025 model bay colt sired by Trudy's Kadish, a GHRA bay leopard Gypsy Vanner, and out of a chestnut Quarter Horse mare.

His dam was used extensively as a two- and three-year-old, showing a lot of cow and staying gentle through it all. His sire, Trudy's Kadish, is extremely broke for anyone to ride or drive. Queso is the type of young colt that can grow into a trusted partner, whether on the ranch, in the arena, or in the show pen.

Winston Miata
AQHA #6035483

Winston is started in the heeling and break away and is the same horse every time you saddle him up. He watches a cow and is fun to ride both out on the range sorting or working in the pens, will open and close gates, excellent side pass, good one-handed neck rein. Winston has done all aspect of ranch work, he's seasoned on the trail. He doesn't need a daily job but he doesn't complain if you give him one. He is happy to ride out alone or in a group. He has no vices. Easy to catch. He would finish out to be an excellent breakaway or heel horse. This gelding is a very easy keeper, and would fit into any operation or program.

ROANY

Consigned by Bexlei Good

SEX: Gelding

FOALED: 2010

COLOR: Red Roan

Roany is a big, dependable 15-year-old gelding standing 15.3 hands. He's done it all — from pushing cattle and roping to crossing water, opening gates, and ponying kids around. He's sound, sane, and reliable with a huge motor and a very willing attitude. While he's been sitting a bit and carries some extra weight, he's the kind you can saddle up and get a full day's work out of. Roany is UTD on vaccines, teeth, and trims.

Note: he does have a small scar behind his right front hoof that does not affect his soundness.
